Introduction

Safeguarding is everyone's responsibility. Prospero Group acknowledges the duty to safeguard and promote the welfare of Children and Adults at Risk; and is committed to ensuring safeguarding practice that reflects statutory responsibilities, government guidance and complies with best practice requirements. All Children and Adults, regardless of age, disability, gender, racial heritage, religious belief, sexual orientation or identity, have the right to equal protection from all types of harm or abuse.

This policy applies to all Internal Employees and Temporary Workers and, will be widely promoted and be mandatory for everyone involved in Prospero Group. Failure to comply with this policy and Prospero Group's safeguarding procedures may result in disciplinary action being taken, including termination of employment and/or contract.

All Temporary Workers placed by Prospero Group are expected to familiarise themselves with arrangements for safeguarding Children and Adults at Risk in the organisation where they are placed and to have a clear understanding regarding abuse and neglect in all forms; including how to identify, respond and report.

Prospero Group expect all Internal Employees and Temporary Workers to follow and promote good practice in safeguarding. In order to do so, they should:

- Read, understand, accept and act in accordance with this policy.
- Be vigilant and follow professional codes of conduct to maintain professional boundaries and safe working practices.
- Report any concerns or disclosures related to the protection and safety of Children and Adults at risk.
- Undertake mandatory safeguarding training and awareness sessions where provided.
- Help educate learners/service users in placements regarding matters of keeping safe, including acting as a good role model.

According to the Children Act 1989, a 'Child' is anyone who has not yet reached their 18th birthday. The fact that a child has reached 16 years of age, is living independently or is in further education, is a member of the armed forces, is in hospital or in custody in the secure estate for children and young people, does not change his or her status or entitlement to services or protection under current legislation.

In this policy, the terms 'child' and 'young person', or 'children' and 'young people', are used interchangeably to refer to any individual under the age of 18.

The Care Act 2014 defines an 'Adult at Risk' as an adult who:

- has needs for care and support (whether or not the local authority is meeting any of those needs) and
- is experiencing, or at risk of, abuse or neglect; and
- as a result of those care and support needs is unable to protect themselves from either the risk of, or the experience of abuse or neglect.

Abuse and neglect are forms of maltreatment. Somebody may abuse or neglect a child/vulnerable adult by inflicting harm, or by failing to act to prevent harm.

The Children Act 1989 defines 'harm' as "ill-treatment or the impairment of health or development". 'Development' means physical, intellectual, emotional, social or behavioural development; 'health' means physical or mental health; and 'ill-treatment' includes sexual abuse and forms of ill-treatment which are not physical. As a result of the Adoption and Children Act 2002, the definition of harm also includes "impairment suffered by hearing or seeing the ill-treatment of another"

Abuse may be perpetrated by an individual from the child or adult's school, college, day centre, community, family, those in a position of trust or another child/vulnerable adult.

All staff should be aware that children can abuse other children (often referred to as peer on peer abuse). This is most likely to include but may not be limited to: bullying (including cyberbullying), physical abuse, sexual violence, sexual harassment, up-skirting, sexting (also known as youth produced sexual imagery); and initiation/hazing type violence and rituals.

Categories of abuse - Children

Child abuse can be one of four different categories as set out in Working Together to Safeguard Children (2018):

- Physical Abuse: Physical abuse is a form of abuse which may involve hitting, shaking, throwing, poisoning, burning or scalding, drowning, suffocating or otherwise causing physical harm to a child. Physical harm may also be caused when a parent or carer fabricates the symptoms of, or deliberately induces, illness in a child.
- Emotional Abuse: The persistent emotional maltreatment of a child such as to cause severe and persistent adverse effects on the child's emotional development. It may involve conveying to a child that they are worthless or unloved, inadequate, or valued only insofar as they meet the needs of another person. It may include not giving the child opportunities to express their views, deliberately silencing them or 'making fun' of what they say or how they communicate. It may feature age or developmentally inappropriate expectations being imposed on children. These may include interactions that are beyond a child's developmental capability, as well as overprotection and limitation of exploration and learning, or preventing the child participating in normal social interaction. It may involve seeing or hearing the ill-treatment of another. It may involve serious bullying (including cyber bullying), causing children frequently to feel frightened or in danger, or the exploitation or corruption of children. Some level of emotional abuse is involved in all types of maltreatment of a child, though it may occur alone.

- Sexual Abuse: Sexual abuse involves forcing or enticing a child or young person to take part in sexual activities, not necessarily involving a high level of violence, whether or not the child is aware of what is happening. The activities may involve physical contact, including assault by penetration (e.g. rape or oral sex) or non-penetrative acts such as masturbation, kissing, rubbing and touching outside of clothing. They may also include non-contact activities, such as involving children in looking at, or in the production of, sexual images, watching sexual activities, encouraging children to behave in sexually inappropriate ways, or grooming a child in preparation for abuse (including via the internet). Sexual abuse is not solely perpetrated by adult males. Women can also commit acts of sexual abuse, as can other children.
- Neglect: Neglect is the persistent failure to meet a child's basic physical and/or psychological needs, likely to result in the serious impairment of the child's health or development. Neglect may occur during pregnancy as a result of maternal substance abuse. Once a child is born, neglect may involve a parent or carer failing to:
 - provide adequate food, clothing and shelter (including exclusion from home or abandonment);
 - protect a child from physical and emotional harm or danger;
 - ensure adequate supervision (including the use of inadequate caregivers); or
 - ensure access to appropriate medical care or treatment.

It may also include neglect of, or unresponsiveness to, a child's basic emotional needs.

For detailed guidance on the signs which may indicate abuse and neglect see 'What to do if you're worried your child is being abused \(2015\)'.

Categories of abuse - Adults at risk

The categories of adult abuse are set out in the Care Act 2014 and are as follows:

- Physical Abuse: including assault, hitting, slapping, pushing, misuse of medication, restraint, inappropriate physical sanctions.
- Domestic Violence: including psychological, physical, sexual, financial, emotional abuse; so-called 'honour' based violence.
- Sexual Abuse: including rape, indecent exposure, sexual harassment, inappropriate looking or touching, sexual teasing or innuendo, sexual photography, subjection to pornography or witnessing sexual acts, indecent exposure and sexual assault or sexual acts to which the adult has not consented or was pressured into consenting.
- Psychological Abuse: including emotional abuse, threats of harm or abandonment, deprivation of contact, humiliation, blaming, controlling, intimidation, coercion, harassment, verbal abuse, cyber bullying, isolation or unreasonable and unjustified withdrawal of services or supportive networks.
- Financial or Material Abuse: including theft, fraud, internet scamming, coercion in relation to an adult's financial affairs or arrangements, including in connection with wills, property, inheritance or financial transactions, or the misuse or misappropriation of property, possessions or benefits.
- Modern Slavery: encompasses slavery, human trafficking, forced labour and domestic servitude. Traffickers and slave masters use whatever means they have at their disposal to coerce, deceive and force individuals into a life of abuse, servitude and inhumane treatment.
- Discriminatory Abuse: including forms of harassment, slurs or similar treatment; because of race, gender and gender identity, age, disability, sexual orientation or religion.
- Organisational Abuse: including neglect and poor care practice within an institution or specific care setting such as a hospital or care home, for example, or in relation to care provided in one's own home. This may range from one off incidents to on-going ill-treatment. It can be through neglect or poor professional practice as a result of the structure, policies, processes and practices within an organisation.
- Neglect and Acts of Omission: including ignoring medical, emotional or physical care needs, failure to provide access to appropriate health, care and support or educational services, the withholding of the necessities of life, such as medication, adequate nutrition and heating.

- Self-neglect: this covers a wide range of behaviour neglecting to care for one's personal hygiene, health or surroundings and includes behaviour such as hoarding.

Commitment to Safeguarding

This policy is designed to meet the above principles by ensuring that:

- Prospero Group has robust safer recruitment processes that ensures that those who are known to be a risk to Children or Adults or Risk, do not gain access to them; those whose actions suggest that they are a risk to Children or Adults or Risk are detected at the earliest stage and prevented from continuing to work with Children or Adults or Risk; and that those who intend to do harm are prevented at every possible stage from entering the workforce.
- Internal Employees and Temporary Workers understand their roles and responsibilities in respect of safeguarding and are provided with appropriate learning opportunities to recognise, identify and respond to signs of abuse, neglect and other safeguarding concerns relating to Children and Adults at Risk.
- There is an open and transparent culture which enables Internal Employees and Temporary Workers to raise concerns around Children/Adults at Risk, those that work with Children/Adults at Risk, and processes within Prospero Group.
- It is as simple as possible for an individual to report concerns about harm or risk and clear procedures are implemented where safeguarding and Child/Adult at Risk protection issues arise. Where concerns are reported Prospero Group will ensure that individuals are supported.
- Prospero Group has robust policies and procedures in place, which are reviewed and updated at least every 12 months.
- Prospero Group stays up to date with developments on safeguarding best practice, reporting and auditing safeguarding activities annually and addressing any areas for improvement.
- Prospero Group will report any concerns regarding any individual, or any potential safeguarding situation that it becomes aware of as soon as practicable to the appropriate authority and will co-operate in any ongoing investigations or assessments.
- Prospero Group will work in partnership with other services (including local authority children's and adult social care) to ensure that those who are identified as being at risk of abuse are protected.
- Confidential, detailed and accurate records of all safeguarding concerns are maintained and securely stored.

Recruitment and Selection Process

Prospero Group is also committed to protecting Children and Adults at Risk through a careful recruitment and selection process (Safer Recruitment Policy), a Whistleblowing Policy and guidance on appropriate behaviour (Temporary Worker Code of Conduct). These policies should be read alongside this policy.

Prospero Group's rigorous procedures, following ASPCo's Compliance + process ensures that any Temporary Worker found to have a history of unacceptable conduct or practice, will not be placed.

Responding to Safeguarding Concerns

All Internal Employees have a responsibility to protect Children/Adults at Risk. This includes:

- Observing Prospero Group policies and processes.

- Attending the recommended training and keeping their skills and knowledge concerning safeguarding and safer recruitment up to date.
- Reporting any concerns arising from meeting Temporary Worker's or carrying out pre-placement checks to the DSL/DSO without delay and making a clear written record of all relevant information to be passed to the DSL/DSO.
- Reporting any concerns arising from organisation visits / placements to the DSL/DSO at the relevant organisation and confirming that this has been done to Prospero Group's DSL/DSO.
- Taking action, such as following the process detailed in the Whistleblowing Policy where there are concerns about practice.

All Temporary Workers working through Prospero Group are expected to keep Children and Adults at Risk safe by:

- Following Prospero Group's policies and Temporary Worker Code of Conduct.
- Following the Safeguarding Policy of each placement, including any Code of Conduct.
- Making the DSL/DSO at the placement aware of any concerns regarding any Children/Adults at Risk; or any adults caring for or working with those persons.
- Seeking advice and support from Prospero Group's DSL/DSO when they have reason to believe that their concerns have not been responded to appropriately or they have concerns about practice in the placement.

Dealing with allegations of abuse made against Temporary Workers

All Temporary Workers placed on assignment are responsible for supporting safe behaviour and have responsibility to follow the guidance laid out in this policy and related policies, such as the Code of Conduct.

In accordance with the Care Act (2014), Working Together (2018) and Keeping Children Safe in Education (2022), where an organisation has received an allegation that a volunteer, supply staff or member of staff who works with Children/Adults at Risk has:

- behaved in a way that has harmed a Child/Adult at Risk, or may have harmed a Child/Adult at Risk;
- possibly committed a criminal offence against or related to a Child/Adult at Risk;
- behaved towards a Child/Adult in a way that indicates he or she may pose a risk of harm to Children/Adults at Risk; or
- or behaved or may have behaved in a way that indicates they may not be suitable to work with Children/Adults at Risk, a referral should be sent to the LADO within one working day, giving as much detail as possible.

Details regarding allegations that meet the harms threshold and concerns that do not meet the allegations threshold (referred to as 'low level concerns'), including who will take responsibility for this once a Temporary Worker is placed, are set out in Prospero Group's Allegations & Misconduct Policy, which should be read alongside this policy.

Duty to make a referral to the DBS

Where there is evidence that anyone has harmed, or poses a risk of harm, to a Child/Adult at Risk, there is a legal duty on Prospero Group to report that person to the Disclosure and Barring Service using their guidance available here. The DBS has statutory authority to bar a person from working in regulated activity with Children and/or Adults at Risk in the UK.

A referral to the DBS will also be made if the person resigns prior to an investigation being carried out or reaching its conclusion. If the accused person resigns, or ceases to provide their services, this should not prevent an allegation being followed up in accordance with this guidance.

Prospero Group will not make any compromise/settlement agreement in the case of a person deemed unsuitable to work with Children/Adults at Risk. Any such agreement which contained a condition of not referring the case to the DBS would constitute a criminal offence.

Anyone who is concerned about a Child's or Adult at Risk's welfare or who believe that a Child or Adult at Risk may be at risk of abuse should pass any information to the DBS or other appropriate authority as soon as possible and no longer than 24 hours after the initial concern.

Whistleblowing

Individuals may find it difficult to raise concerns about colleagues, managers, people in placement or concerning how safeguarding concerns are responded to within a setting. Prospero Group has a specific Whistleblowing Policy which encourages individuals to raise concerns and also provides details of outside organisations that individuals can approach for support and advice. Prospero Group aims to have an open and honest culture where safeguarding is responded to effectively, and both Internal Employees and Temporary Workers feel safe, supported and able to voice any concerns that they have in the knowledge that they will be responded to.

Summary

Prospero Group will make this policy available to Clients and Temporary Workers by hosting it on our website and including within our booking confirmations.

Prospero Group will make this policy available to Internal Employees by hosting it on our shared drive, in the policies folder.

All Internal Employees and Temporary Workers, must be aware that they have a professional duty to share information with other recruitment firms in order to safeguard Children/Adults at Risk.
